

Why

The Women's Leadership Forum is designed to develop and inspire leaders at all levels of service. Attendees will gain valuable tools, insights, and strategies to enhance their leadership skills while connecting with peers and senior leaders from across the MNNG. This is your opportunity to invest in your professional growth and build lasting networks to strengthen the force.

Who

All service members, from junior enlisted to senior leaders, who are committed to enhancing their leadership skills and building a stronger, more cohesive force should attend the Women's Leadership Forum 2025. Whether you are looking to refine your leadership style, gain fresh perspectives, or connect with like-minded professionals, this event is designed for anyone striving to make a positive impact in their unit and beyond.
