

In 2025, we're building on our legacy with new tools, partnerships, and record-breaking impact.

- 1 Updated Loan Tools: Accessing our online portal and resources has never been easier.
- 2 Record-Breaking Year: We are poised to assist more service members than ever before.
- 3 New Partnerships: We encourage you to visit our resources page to discover how VETLIFE and VetJobs are supporting our applicants.
- 4 We are excited to share new donor partnerships, collaborating with companies for annual contributions, workplace giving, and crisis-triggered donations.

Standing Beside Our Guard Members and Their Families — Every Step of the Way

The National Guard Relief Foundation supports Guard members and their families through comprehensive programs. They provide financial assistance, emergency relief, recovery resources, and long-term wellness support, recognizing that readiness involves caring for the whole person during hardship and recovery.

"We are thrilled to be partnering with VetLife- this allows us to amplify a message that matters: no one should face their battles alone. The Battle Buddy program is about connection, trust, and showing up for each other. Together with VetLife, we're reaching more service members, spouses, and veterans with the support they deserve." Download the app or contact us for more information!"
